Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

ADAM B. BURGNER

Adam B. Burgner, who was born on Horse Creek, Greene County, Tennessee, Jan. 31, 1857, died at Webster, Fla., July 6th, 1920, after an illness of two weeks; aged 63 years, 5 months and 5 days.

Mr. Burgner had made his home on part of the farm where he was born, until about four years ago, when he came to Florida and had been living near Webster since that time. He was buried in Webster cemetery Friday, July 9th. Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. Summers, assisted by Rev. Strickland, pastor of the Baptist Church.

The funeral attendance, as well as the beautiful floral offering attested to the high esteem and regards held for him by his many friends and neighbors here.

It can truly be said in the death of this man, that a good man has gone to his reward. He had been a life-long member of the M. E. Church at Pleasant Hill, Greene County, having never moved his membership from that place.

In church, as well as in his daily life, he was a sincere, devoted man, always conscientious of his duty and ever trying to fulfill same.

Near the end of his hours on earth he said to members of the family around his bedside that he had no fears, but that he was ready to go at any time that death should claim him.

He is the fifth brother of his family to pass away in the past five years. Of his immediate family he leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, one sister, Mrs. Driscoll, of Witt's Foundry, Tenn., and three children as follows: Hartzell S. Burgner, of Plant City, Fla.; Mrs. F. C. Biddaugh, of Reidley, Cal.; and Mrs. F. B. Akard, of Asheville, N. C.

These have the assurance that he is not gone forever but has only gone before for a little while, and is waiting on the other side with beckoning hand for them to come, where families are reunited throughout eternity; where the sting of death is never felt and parting tears are never shed. "He is not dead, but liveth."

IN MEMORIAM

On Friday morning, July 24th, 1920, the sweet spirit of Ethel Josephine Wilhoite, aged 18 years, 11 months and 28 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilhoite, took its flight into the Great Beyond.

She joined the Lutheran Church on confession of faith almost two years ago and since that time has striven to do what Christ would have her do.

As a girl, she was pleasant, attractive, interesting; full of life and fun, kind and sympathetic—the kind of a girl that all admire.

When we think of Etta we wonder why at this time she was called. Her life was cut off when it was most promising; yet we realize that though not old in years, Etta did not live in vain. Someone has already said: "It is not how long we live, but how!" Who knows but that her sweet influence may be more to our lives now than it has ever been before.

Etta will be missed not only in the community, church and Sunday school, but in our hearts as well, for all of us had learned to love her dearly. Loving her as we did, we can realize in a measure how her family must feel bereft of such a sweet daughter and sister. We can hardly help but wish her back, but looking beyond we are consoled by the thought that she has been freed from all heartaches and tears peculiar to this life, and we feel that out beyond the silent river where neither death nor sorrow comes, she is sleeping that dreamless sleep—yes, sleeping—waiting for those dear ones she left behind.

She is survived by father, mother two sisters, four brothers and a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. B. Smith, and her body was laid to rest in the Cove Creek cemetery. A FRIEND.

MARY RUTH McCracken

On January 8th, 1919, there came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. David McCracken a little daughter, who was given the name of Mary Ruth. This babe was prayerfully planned for and longed for and warmly welcomed; and, because it was received in this spirit and accepted as a sweet gift, to be trained as a sacred life.

It became a great blessing to their lives. Mary Ruth was loved as it is not given to all children to be loved, not only by her parents and her little brother, but by fond grandparents and a large circle of other relatives. By her baby ways she also made friends and admirers of all her neighbors.

But, June 23, 1920, when the babe had preached her gospel of love for only seventeen and one-half short happy months, she went back to the God who gave her, there to complete the life so beautifully begun here. The rainbow was transplanted to bloom in the garden of the Heavenly Kingdom.

The home seems desolate without Mary Ruth, but oh, the comfort in the thought that "He carries the lambs in His Bosom."

Father and mother have not lost their dear baby, and as the years go by they will think with increasing satisfaction, and even joy, of their angel child whose little hands will continually beckon the mother to Heaven.

May the memory of this brief, sweet life be a benediction to the lives of all those who so dearly loved her! A NEIGHBOR.

MOSHEIM

The "Warrensburg Special" has grown to be quite a utility on its route through here. We notice that it is loaded with passengers each way. Good luck to it!

Appropos of the bank burglary that occurred a few nights ago, we wish to tell you a little of the tremendous heat of the acetylene-oxygen torch used on the doors of the vault and safe.

It generates the most terrific heat known to science, a heat of more than 3,800 degrees. Aluminum can be welded by it, which heretofore was thought impossible. It will cut through 2 in. of solid steel in less than a minute, and pierce a 12 in. piece of the hardest steel in less than ten minutes. If the robbers had not been frightened away they could have burnt the vault and safe down, it would seem, in half an hour.

Now as to what frightened these thieves, it is quite probable that during the intervals of the roaring of the thunder they heard Frank Lowry snoring; Frank thinks so.

Next Sunday, 10:30, a. m., is Children's Day at the M. E. Church, South. A nice time is anticipated by all.

It is said that some of the dopers are drinking "Jet-Oil." Wonder how that would affect gray hair?

"Tis pleasant sure to see one's name in print; A book's a book altho there's nothin' in it."

It is a great delusion to think that if we could have our own will in every thing, that we should be perfectly happy.

"We can never be so good but that we should strive to be better. He will never be better than he is who does not fear to be worse than he was." ***
